CROSSROADS COMMUNITY PROJECT

As we are living through these unprecedented times we are hoping to stay connected with one another as much as possible. These weekly community projects are something we can do together.

Here are the instructions for this week's Community Project:

Read Mark 11:1-10 (For context, read Mark 11:1-33)

STUDY:

There and then questions:

1. What questions arise in your reading?
  2. What seems to be Mark's main point in this section of Scripture?
  3. Just about everywhere Jesus traveled was by foot. Why do you think at this point he needed to ride on a colt?
  4. What does riding a colt say about Jesus' authority?
- the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!

Here and now questions:

5. How do we know we recognize the authority of Jesus?
6. Can you identify a time when Jesus did not respond the way you wanted?
7. How do we respond when God does not fulfill our expectations?

MEDITATION:

Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord! Blessed is the coming kingdom of our father David!

Maybe you want to make it a competition with some friends, determine a point system for animals you find and keep track of your points throughout the week. Or grab your favorite stuffed animal and place it in creative places around your house taking a picture of it. Share a picture you drew of your favorite animal. The possibilities are endless! Whatever you do, take pictures of your adventures and post them on Facebook or Instagram tagging Crossroads Church by typing in @LimaCrossroads. Have fun!
